THE 1925 NATIONAL CONVENTION of
ALPHA CHI RHO

Bethlehem, Pa., February 20, 21, 22, 23.
Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday.

Just in Passing

THIS Editor phoned the rolly National Editor over at Nutley to find out how he got home Jan. 1st, but his Mrs. said he'd fallen down stairs and broken his disposition. Ah there, Hobby!

THE worst letter received for this issue was from Brother Asas Tot, Phi Sigma (not of Pittsburgh) saying that he wouldn't be at the Convention because he couldn't waste a half week's time and couldn't afford the $200. His letter is not printed on page ten but instead the following thoughts are brought out for contemplation.

NO one who ever attended a Convention has labelled the time "wasted," but rather a happy, invigorating period of relaxation and pleasure (excepting, of course, committee members and principal speakers) that more than repaid the time lost in renewed energy.

FURTHERMORE, expenses cannot run to $200 because you could buy the town for that if the Committee had not already bought it and paid for same. A conservative estimate places the figure at $....: well, turn to page 7 and figure it out for yourself with particular attention to the saving for wholesale attendance.

News and Comment

Convention The 1925 National Convention will be held in Bethlehem, Pa., with headquarters at the Hotel Bethlehem, on Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, February 20, 21, 22, and 23.

About You Try to be there. You'll not regret it. Think what a pleasure to meet with so many fine fellows; make new friends; renew old friendships; and mingle with the undergrads fresh from the campus. Isn't that something to contemplate and plan to attend? No worries, no care, just a darn good time for all at the Smoker on Friday evening; the Formal Dance on Saturday evening; Sunday to do as you please; the Lehigh and Lafayette Chapters will keep open house, or you might slip over to New York City for the day; the Tea Dance on Monday afternoon; then the Banquet on Monday evening and after that scamper back to your work refreshed and happy.

Meetings Deliberations will be held in the morning and afternoon of Saturday and Monday and upon those meetings depends our progress for the next year. And we do want that.

Certificates When buying your railroad ticket to Convention, by all means ask for and obtain a Certificate. Remember what you are to have—a Certificate. Nothing else. If 250 turn up with Certificates we all go home for half fare. If you travel only ten miles get a Certificate but only between February 17 and 23. The saving may not be great to you but half of anything over ten dollars looks big. So help the "Distance" boys by getting a Certificate when you buy your ticket.

Finis Everything possible has been done to insure a good convention—one to be enjoyed and remembered. The only thing needed to insure its success is your presence—so come if you possibly can, Brother.
